General Description

Probably Kenya's most famous hotel – and certainly its oldest – The Norfolk has been drawing the rich and famous to its hallowed doors since they first opened on Christmas Day 1904. In many respects, Nairobi grew up around the Norfolk, which occupies a central but quiet location opposite the National Theatre. The comfortable, newly refurbished rooms and cottages circle a large inner garden laden with flowering shrubs and heavy with birdsong. The hotel's renowned restaurants, the Lord Delamere Dining Room and the Ibis Grill, offer delectable dining in elegant surroundings, while the front terrace is a popular location for watching modern Nairobi go by.
